Award for fund manager expertise - Thomson Reuters Extel Survey 2013

Dusseldorf, June 12, 2013: The annual survey conducted by Thomson Reuters since 1974 rates and awards several thousand capital market experts around the world. Data and processes are independently assessed and verified by Deloitte.

Thomson Reuters Extel professionally gather, collate and present perception opinions and ratings from the investment community worldwide. Specifically Reuters provides assessment and rankings of brokerage firms and individuals for research, equity sales and trading; of fund management firms and managers; of corporates for investor relations expertise.

Fund Manager Siebel was awarded for the third time in a row as one of the top 20 fund managers in Europe (Category Equities, Capital Goods). Ranked among the best well-known fund management firms like Allianz Global Investors, LBBW Asset Management, JP Morgan Asset Management and BlackRock Investment Management can be found as well.
